JUNE 23, 2024

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!"
The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them,
"Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" - Mk 4:39-40

ADORATION CHAPEL CONSTRUCTION

SOLEMNITY OF STS. PETER & PAUL

Defend, O Lord, thy servants, we beseech thee, from all dangers both of body and soul; and, by the intercession of the blessed and glorious Virgin Mary, Mother of God, of the blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and of all thy saints, mercifully grant us the blessings of peace and safety; that all adversities and errors being removed, thy Church may freely and securely serve thee; through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

The Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul is celebrated on June 29th

STEWARSHIP REFLECTIONS

Our readings today remind us that God always has our best interests in mind. No matter what is going on in our lives, God is with us.

In our Gospel today, Jesus and His disciples are traveling in a boat when heavy winds and violent waves begin to overwhelm the boat. Jesus was there sleeping in the boat in the midst of this horrific storm.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Volunteer Here!! Must be entering 6th grade or higher!! Adults needed too! Register to participate here! Entering Kindergarten to 5th grade. STUBA diving into friendship with god. OLMC VBS July 8-12 9am-12:00pm. REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!!!

The disciples woke Jesus and questioned Him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" Jesus calms the wind and the waves, and then asks them in return, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Think back to a time that you endured great suffering, a hard trial or felt overwhelmed with life. How did you respond?

In moments of trial, we often live our days in a panic. We see the water coming into our boat and we do all that we can in our power to stay afloat. We are frantic, so we fail to stop and recognize that our Savior is in the same boat with us. Although it might feel like He is sleeping and His presence is lacking, He is right there suffering with us.

JPII CLASSIC BASKETBALL GAME

GAME TIME! August 2, 2024. DIOCESE OF PHOENIX OFFICE OF VOCATIONS. PRIESTS VS SEMINARIANS. #PhxSems #JPIIClassic

God won't allow anything that we cannot handle. In a moment of suffering, we might feel trapped. Yet, He sees the moment of peace and still waters.

During our trials, cling to Jesus. Know that there is an end, and whether we see the end in this life or the next, God allows it all for our salvation.

5PM FOOD TRUCKS 7PM BASKETBALL TIP OFF POST GAME FREE ICE CREAM! Don't miss it! Tickets go on sale July 1st. JPII CLASSIC ANNUAL BASKETBALL EVENT

Today, let us thank God for His presence in our lives, and ask for the eyes of faith to see that He is right here with us always.

BEREAVEMENT SUPPORT MINISTRY IS ON THE WAY

Dear Friends,

We have just recently concluded our Parish Census and Survey. One of the major purposes of these exercises as I told you, was to identify the needs of our Parish and appropriately address them. While the final outcome of the survey is still being compiled and will be shared at an appropriate time, one need that came out frequently from many of you and which I personally have been also thinking about, is the need for a Bereavement Support Ministry here in our Parish. What is this Ministry all about? It is about providing spiritual, emotional and other supports to members of our community who are grieving the loss of a dear one. In other words, it is about providing a shoulder to lean on and a safe place where we can be vulnerable in exposing our raw emotions to people we trust after the loss of a dear one. I am sure all of us have experienced such a loss and can therefore appreciate the need for this support.

So, as we launch this Ministry, we are blessed to have some experienced members of our Parish who will be available to provide leadership for us. At the head of this Ministry will be Sandy Consiglio who took time to attend a course specifically geared towards running this Ministry of Bereavement. Below is what she wrote about her own experience which I would like to share with you:

My Dear Fellow Parishioners,

My husband, Salvatore and I, registered at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish in 1979. Msgr. McCready was our Pastor then and, as it turned out, we both worked for him. Sal was his full-time employee and I part-time as I was downtown at the Diocesan Pastoral Center. When Msgr. McCready died, Father Timothy Davern was appointed by Bishop O'Brien to replace him. Our Parish has experienced many deaths of Parishioners over the years and transfers of a few Pastors and Associate Pastors since that time and here we are, vibrant and alive today. During these times we also celebrated the 75th Anniversary of our Parish and are heading close to our 100th Anniversary. Just like our lives...we celebrate births, anniversaries, weddings, ordinations, and deaths. How do I dare speak of "deaths" as a celebration?

Recently we read of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Creation and the free will option that was theirs to make and the actions that followed. Our loving Father did not abandon us.

One of the greatest heart-wrenching difficulties of our lives is to face death. When we lose someone that we love, we have to face death and it hurts. Losing a parent or grandparent is hard. We loved them and they were part of who we are and what we have become. And as we continue to grow, we make choices through love and what we think will bring us happiness. When our spouse dies, our world is rocked, and our "footing" seems unstable as we try to make sense of how we are going to continue to live. We gather our remaining family and friends who are suffering with us with the hope of drawing strength from them as well.

We might holler at God and question Him and cry out to Him as to why He seems so far away from us. And to lose a child...why, God, why?

We may never get to these answers on this side of eternity. Perhaps all we can ever do is draw strength from one another and how God has given us the strength through prayer and our individual journeys of growth. For this reason and working toward healing, our Pastor, Fr. Robert and Parish Staff, want to offer a Bereavement Ministry so that those who suffer such losses can get to a better place of encouraging one another to lives of peace in doing God's Will.

Sandy Consiglio

So dear friends, stay tuned for more details on this Ministry in the days and weeks to come.

I love you.

God's blessings,
Fr Robert Aliunzi
